Two senatorial district meetings made up of state convention delegates elected at the republican caucus last Monday were held in the Norwich town hall on Friday morning to elect two delegates at large from each district to attend the republican state convention at New Haven on September 8th and 10th. Both meetings were entirely harmonious and as there was no contest the business was quickly concluded and adjournment taken.

Nineteenth District. At 11.30 o'clock State Central Committee Member John D. Hall called to order the meeting of the Nineteenth district, which included the towns of Norwich, Preston and Ledyard. Hon. Edwin W. Higgins was chosen chairman and W. I. Allyn of Ledyard clerk.

Those present included the four state convention delegates from Norwich, Edwin W. Higgins, William B. Young, L. O. Smith and C. L. Frieble; two from Ledyard, W. I. Allyn and Billings T. Avery, and one from Preston, C. C. Zabriske.

Hinkley was one of the delegates at large elected and the second was Fred Comstock of Waterford. This concluded the business and the meeting adjourned.

DOUGLASS PAYS FINE IN HORSE CASE. Found Guilty—You and Costs Was the Sentence—Trowbridge Case Nolleed

In the superior court here on Friday the jury in the trial of Ralph Douglass of Voluntown, accused of beating his horse on June 10th so that it died, brought in a verdict of guilty after a minute of deliberation, during which they once returned to ask of Judge Shumway if they could find Douglass guilty of manslaughter. There is no without including the allegation that he had caused its death. The judge informed them that this could not be their case, the contest opening in the complaint. He delivered his charge to the jury when court opened in the morning at 10 o'clock.

Sentence was deferred until 2 o'clock and when court came in after the noon recess State's Attorney Hall asked that sentence be put over to next week on the ground that as Mr. Greenman has another more serious allegation against Mr. Douglass, that of assault with intent to kill Charles Mathers on Aug. 20th. This was granted. The first time that Mr. Douglass had been convicted in a court for an offense like this upon which he was now found guilty.

Listening to the argument of Attorney Desmond, Judge Shumway was of the opinion, he declared, that the accused should stand committed until once it was his right to have it pronounced now. The attorney, who with Attorney C. V. James has been counsel for the accused, argued for immediate sentence and said that although the judge had not had the accused take the stand at the trial of the case he would stand on his feet and tell him about the matter and that was that he had not used the white birch stick on the horse which had been produced in evidence in the case. He was unwilling, if the court desired it, to have the accused make this statement before the court. Attorney James admitted that Mr. Douglass had served 60 days in jail on another charge, but that he would be done in this case if a fine was levied, although a jail penalty was a possibility.

Judge Shumway made the sentence a fine of $50 and costs and directed that Douglass stand committed until it is paid. Then court adjourned until next Tuesday morning.

Douglass soon paid his fine and costs, amounting to $157 altogether, and was released from the pen and went home with his wife.

The jury in the trial consisted of Herbert A. Gardner, Norwich; Otis A. Browning, Norwich; Nathan H. Flynn, Preston; George H. Hoxie, Elmer L. Pultz, Lebanon; Horace G. L. Chester, S. Maine, North Stonington; William J. J. Pratt, Waterford; Samuel Milner, Frank A. Fitch, Sprague; Charles A. Williams, Salem.

Accusation Against Frank Trowbridge. In the morning session of court, after the verdict in the Douglass case, a jury was chosen for the trial of Frank P. Trowbridge upon the charge of assault and battery upon Israel Weinstein of East Lyme. Mr. Trowbridge was defended by Attorney John H. Borge.

The accused had been bound over until $100 bonds from the Montville police on June 10th, the assault alleged having taken place on Feb. 4th, at which both men were working at a sawmill for Thaddeus K. Raymond in Montville.

It was alleged in the complaint that Weinstein had been knocked down twice with a canthook by Trowbridge while the men were loading ties. Mr. Raymond was the first witness called. He was followed by Mr. Weinstein, the complainant, for whom Herman Alford acted as interpreter. A taster, Albert E. Chappell, was also called before court adjourned at 1 o'clock.

attorney, who was assisted by Attorney Lubchansky, decided to nolle the case upon the payment of $25. The case was then taken to the office of the secretary of state at Boston as an unofficial ballot law commission. That this primary work is really a big chore is evident from the fact that State Secretary Frank J. Donahue has 12,500 names to prepare and print on the ballots for the three parties for the state of New York. The number of ballots printed reaches the modest total of 1,250,000.

Mr. Dillaby has 65 temporary clerks under him for this work, which began about Aug. 1 and ends about Oct. 15. After the primaries the office has to tabulate the vote for each candidate and notify officially those nominated.

REVIVING PLUMBERS' UNION.

Expectation That It Will Soon Be Reorganized Here.

Within probably a week it is the expectation of the journeymen plumbers of the city that the plumbers' union, which for a long time has been almost non-existent, will be revived. The charter of the union is still here and those who have spoken of the contemplated move by the plumbers have indicated that they believed the union would again come into enough strength to command union conditions on local contracts and in local shops. At the present time, it is understood, there are practically no union plumbing shops in the city, although membership in the union has been retained by a number of the journeymen. There is an unsettled difficulty between the union and the master plumbers of over a year's standing, following a demand made by the journeymen which was refused by the master plumbers.
